Psalm Response: Glory to God – Creator, Word and Spirit

As God always was, is now, and will be forever. Amen

First Reading: Lev 19:1-2, 9-18 Bible Page 93

Second Reading: 1 Cor 3:10-11, 16-23 Bible Page 927

Gospel: Matt 5:38-48 Bible Page 786

Sentence: Your Father in heaven makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. Matthew 5.45

Prayer for the Day

Bountiful God,

you send sun and rain to the righteous and the unrighteous.

Let your grace fall upon your people,

enable us to love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us

so that we may truly be your children.

Through Jesus Christ our Liberator,

who is alive and reigns with you,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

All are welcome to receive communion

Prayers and anointing for healing are available during communion in the chapel, at the back of the church.

Theme

This is our last week immersed in the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 5. In it Jesus offers a theological foundation both for what he has done so far, and what he will say and do for the rest of the gospel. With Lent just around the corner it is good to hear Jesus invitation to imagine an entirely different world from the one they were looking out on, and from what we experience. A world where the measure of who is deemed important, notable, eminent and influential was not the rich, the powerful, the high born; but the wretched, despised, and the meek. One of the problems with reading something in a translation from its original language, like the bible, is that words do not always translate easily across languages, and the words chosen do not have the same meaning in the original language as it does for us. This week we have– “perfect.” We are told to be perfect as our Father in heaven is perfect. We often hear and read this as needing to be without fault, flawless, heavenly, divine. And we think “I can’t be that” and we read on thinking this is all out of reach. But in the Greek the word used more often means “mature, complete, grown up, ripe”. Being perfect is not being flawless, but mature, complete – being all that we might be. What does that look like? That is what the Sermon on the Mount is all about. When we live the kind of generosity, mercy, compassion, love for all that Jesus is talking about we are perfect. We are not being asked to be flawless. We are asked to be an image of God’s compassion.

May God’s desire for us to grow in compassion, working for a world where all thrive, especially the poor and meek, shape our journey into Lent.

On Wednesday, February the 26th, we invite you to 'wear your heart on your sleeve' by attending an Ash Wednesday Service.

During this service you will receive the sign of the cross - a symbol of our mortality, penitence, and belonging. When we see that sign on other people's foreheads, we are reminded that we belong to the Jesus movement. By receiving the imposition of ashes, we become a public witness to the work of God in our lives and in this world. It is a public display of our loyalty to the One who loves. So, go early, go often, and be seen!”

Prayer

Our community

We pray for the communities of Gate Pa, Greerton, Pyes Pa and Merivale. We pray for those who live without hope, and all those who seek to bring your hope. We particularly pray for the ministry of Centrepoin, Whanau Aroha Centre and Merivale Community Centre.

We pray for those who are dying, sick, in hospital or in any other kind of need: Parishioners in rest homes and those who receive home communion, and any others you hold in your hearts currently.

Our Church: Today we pray for the Hui Amorangi ki Te Tairawhiti: Te Matau-a-Maui Rohe, Tamaki-Tamatea Rohe, Waka o Te Whakapono (Urban Mission).

Wider Church: Today we pray for Central and south Asia.
