Sentence: Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in Heaven. Matthews 5.16

Prayer for the Day

Faithful God,
You have appointed us your witnesses,
to be a light that shines in the world:
let us not hide the bright hope you have given us,
but tell everyone of your love,
revealed in Jesus Christ the Lord,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God,
for ever and ever. Amen.

All are welcome to receive communion Prayers and anointing for healing are available during communion
in the chapel, at the back of the church.

Theme:

Last week Jesus invited his brand-new disciples, and anyone else who was with them, to stand on a hill and look at their broken world. As they looked, he taught them who they might aspire to be: the poor in spirit, those who mourn, the meek, those who hunger and thirst for righteousness. Imagine a world based on these aspirations. This is what God longs for this world. This is what God has always longed for. It is at the heart of the law and the prophets. In Matthew, Jesus does not come to replace the law and the prophets. Jesus is not offering a new revelation. Jesus is fulfilling the law. That raises some questions for me. Questions like - What is the purpose of the Mosaic law? What did Jesus mean by saying he has come to fulfil the law? How might the beatitudes and Isaiah help us answer these questions? An answer might include that righteousness is when we join God the Creator longing for this world and God's people, when we live as image bearers of God's creative love and generosity, when we become lights in a seemingly dark world, and become the salt plates that get the dung fires of God's justice and hope burning once again.

Prayer

Our community - We pray for the communities of Gate Pa, Greerton, Pyes Pa and Merivale. We pray for those who live without hope, and all those who seek to bring your hope. We particularly pray for the ministry of Centrepont, Whanau Aroha Centre and Merivale Community Centre.

We pray for those who are dying, sick, in hospital or in any other kind of need: Parishioners in rest homes and those who receive home communion, and any others you hold in your hearts currently.

Our Church: Today we pray for the people of Mt Maunganui Parish and their clergy: Christine Scott (Vicar), Wendy Showan (Priest-Associate)

Wider Church: Today we pray for the youth of our Province – Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia.
